Citizen Awards

At the start of our meeting there was an award given to a New Berlin Citizen for reporting something suspicious in their area, which led to an arrest for burglary in New Berlin and West Allis. His family was present and afterwards he presented a check to the NBPD for their defibrillator campaign.

We currently have an adequate supply.

There have been numerous calls placed to the NBPD from citizens requesting Security Surveys. The PD in turn forwards them a packet of information and therein is also information about Neighborhood Watch Groups.
