NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

Officer Hanlon shared briefly about the recent burglary and break-ins at apartment complex basement garages.

There was a good turn out at the Block Captain meeting with about 30 people attending. People were enthusiastic, some indicating interest in having quarterly meetings, and perhaps forming into groups.

Two people will be captains and another lady responded to the Mayor's pitch.

Set up sub-committee of Officer Hanlon, Dawn Sievert, Roger Wilde and Shirley Mueller.

NEIGHBORHOOD SIGNS

Street Department is still replacing as needed and will check our supply.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Balance is $3,813. We have purchased hand-outs of activity books and crayons, chip clips, bike spoke sliders, stickers, etc.

We will be getting bike helmets and Master Lock will give us some bike locks again this year.

OLD BUSINESS

Discussion of all the participating groups for Safety Saturday this year. We have confirmations on most and still need to hear from some of those who have been contacted..

We do have some new things this year along with the old favorites.

NEW BUSINESS

Easter Egg Hunt at the New Berlin Library on April 12th.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, April 23, 2003 at the New Berlin Public Safety Building.

Motion by Comm. Weber and seconded by Comm. Sievert to adjourn. Meeting was adjourned at 8:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Shirley Mueller, Secretary
