New Business:

Executive Committee

Introductory Event at Hickory Grove

Kassie Liebsch and Carrie Gonlag reviewed final plans for the Kick Off dance and distributed a final task list. A total of $806 has been donated to cover expenses. JR Gradel confirmed Blimpie's will sell subs. Security will be provided by 4 police officers and 3 fire department personnel. Maja Middleton, JR Gradel, Ashley Stocks, Andy Benfield, Dean Zieminski, Casie Walsh, Larry Kilmer and Megin Mozina will do clean up. Maja Middleton and Michelle Wagner will have the dance announced at the West and Eisenhower games. An announcement will be included on the City cable channel, and Kassie Liebsch will contact Time Warner about publicity on the Weather Channel. Tom Riese will be available all evening. Carrie Gonlag distributed event tee shirts. Mayor Gatzke stressed the focus of this event is the need for a teen facility in New Berlin.

Visit to Algoma Youth Center and Long Range Planning Session:

The January 26th trip to Algoma was cancelled due to bad weather, and Mayor Gatzke will be rescheduling this in March.

Teen Yellow Pages

Categories to be included and layout of the information in the Yellow Pages were discussed. Maja Middleton will contact Mike Crowley of NBEDC to discuss the project and the possibility of working with NBEC's consultant.
