He will also get four dozen eggs and balloons. Mason Fong will contact the New Berlin Park and Recreation department in regards to a tug-o-war rope and checking out picnic kits. Anyone who has hula-hoops should bring them to the relay.

Develop a Comprehensive List of Entertainment

The board decided not to have set times for decathlon events or non-sporty events. Ashley Stocks will type a list of the special events that will be available at the relay. Decathlon events will include: a 3-legged race, crab crawl, fastest lap, backward lap (running backward, different from reverse lap), wheelbarrow, egg on a spoon, cup of water-distance while skipping, balloon between legs, and a mile relay. Non-sporty events will include Human Knot, The Great American Egg Drop, Data Processing, Human Alphabet, Lap Game, What Does This Mean, and Vocal Puzzles.

Body Count Of Expected Attendees From the Youth Board

Everyone who was still at the meeting is planning on attending the relay; this includes Ashley Stocks, Greg Bybee, Michelle Wagner, Dean Patzer, Casie Walsh, Mason Fong, and Maja Middleton.

Assign Tasks for Individuals or Groups During the Event

Everyone agreed to help where needed during the relay. Each committee will run their own events.

Fourth Of July Participation

Cheryl Schober distributed schedules for the Fourth of July celebration. The Youth Board will be responsible for selling tickets at the climbing wall. We can charge people to climb the wall, and keep the profit. Adventure Rock will be responsible for the actual climbing. Maja Middleton volunteered to sell tickets for the full three hours, 6:30-9:30 on July 3, 2001. Megan Mozina suggested that we make signs or flyers to advertise our next Teen Dance. Mr. Gatzke will provide a cash box for the event.

Reminders To Continue with Original Tasks After the Relay

Greg Bybee reminded all committees to continue with the teen dance, teen yellow pages, web page, and next year's Fourth of July participation.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 6:45 pm.

Next Meeting

Greg Bybee stressed that the next meeting is very important to attend and that attendance has been very poor lately. The next meeting is Tuesday, July 10, 2001.
